

Dharma Evening

March 24, 2010 Unitarian Church, Vancouver

Deconstructing Buddhism:

An evening talk, book signing, and question and answer session with meditation teacher and author, Stephen Batchelor.

Stephen Batchelor, a former Buddhist monk, studied under the guidance of Tibetan lamas and completed a three-year Zen training in Korea. He is a member of the teacher council at Gaia House in England and is co-founder of Sharpham College. He teaches worldwide and lives in southwest France.

Stephen considers Buddhism to be a constantly evolving culture of awakening rather than a religious system based on immutable dogmas and beliefs. His topic for this evening's discourse and discussion is "Deonstructing Buddhism".

Stephen is the author of

Alone with Others;
The Faith to Doubt;
The Awakening of the West;
Buddhism Without Beliefs;
Verses from the Centre;
A Buddhist Vision of the Sublime;
Living with the Devil;
A Meditation on Good and Evil;
and the recently published,
Confession of a Buddhist Atheist.
